Today, the case is fixed for arguments to be advanced by Shri Lokesh Narang, Special PP for ED on the application seeking further directions and clarifications in the order dated 31.05.2022 but he submits that the identical point as raised in the present application, already stands argued before Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court in a case filed by Union Bank of India against Assistant Director, Directorate of Enforcement and judgment has been reserved, which is likely to be pronounced by the end of this month or first week of next month. He, therefore, makes a prayer for adjourning the hearing of the present application as after pronouncement made by Hon'ble High Court, necessity of deciding the present application will not arise.

Though the prayer for adjournment has been opposed by Shri Vikram Singh, Advocate for applicant but he submits that if this court finds it proper to grant adjournment, then the matter may be adjourned but on the adjourned date, application may be decided after hearing arguments if by then, verdict of Hon'ble High Court does not come.
